Examines organizational structures and leadership and management processes associated with college and university student affairs administration. Special emphasis is given to institutional policies, planning, and coordination to support enrollment management, housing and dining, recreation services, and career services, and how these key processes contribute to the mission of public and private 2- and 4-year institutions.

Student Learning Outcomes:
  • Identify professional foundations and principles of the student affairs field.
  • Understand the theoretical foundations of the field.
  • Understand the essential competencies required of a student affairs practitioner.
Plan and then demonstrate a university level program.

Apply research findings to a student affairs related content area.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

Reading Commentary

Students will write a 2-page journal, about 500 words, for each chapter of the assigned readings. Reflections may be on any topic addressed in the reading. Late journals will not be accepted.

Group Led Discussions

Each group will lead several chapter discussions over the course of the semester. Chapter discussions of the Seidman text will be 25 to 30-minutes in length and include a 15 to 20-minute PowerPoint presentation of the main topics, followed by 10 to 15-minutes of discussion/application questions.

Chapter discussion length for the Schuh et al., text will be 40 to 45-minutes in length. Twenty to 25-minutes will outline the main points of the chapters. Reserve about 20-minutes for discussion.

Write a one-page summary handout of the chapter’s main points. Make the handout 12-point, New Times Roman, double-spaced. No credit will be given for a two-page handout.

Student Affairs Program

Groups will plan and then demonstrate a student affairs program based off of one chapter within the Part Five: Essential Competencies found in the Schuh et al. The program may be an event, training, or informational session that a student affairs administrator may conceivably offer within a college setting. Programs may cover: housing, academic advising, student activities, financial aid, dining services, health services, disability services, legal services, or disciplinary committees. Program presentations will be 50 to 55-minutes in length. About 20-minutes will outline the content of the chapter, 5-minutes to outline the program and rational. The program demonstration will be 20-minutes and will involve the whole class. Conclude the presentation with a 10 to 15-minute post event discussion. Provide a one-page handout.

Research Paper

Students will write a 12 or 15-page research paper of any (instructor approved) student affairs related topic. The paper length will vary by degree, 12-pages for master’s student and 15-pages for doctoral students. Paper format will be a literature review of a topic followed by an application of the research findings to practice. The focus of this paper is to identify research-based best practices and then apply the best practices to a real or theoretical college or university based student affairs context. The focus may be on program implementation, environmental factors, student integration within the campus, instructional practices, organization of programs or departments, some other issue, or the application of a theory to an organizational setting. The findings will be presented in a seven-minute presentation at the end of the semester.

A one-page draft proposal of the topic will be submitted for instructor approval. Include at least five research article references with the write-up.

A five-page second draft will be submitted for instructor review and input. Include at least four-pages of the literature review write-up, and one-page of a potential application.
The final paper will have a literature review of 12-15 articles for master’s students, and 15-18 articles for doctoral students. The literature review will fall between one-half to two-thirds of the final paper length (6 to 8-pages for Masters student, 7.5 to 10-pages for doctoral students)

The outline for the paper will be:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Literature Review</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Application</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>References</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Final Exam

The final exam will be a cumulative exam of major points covered during the semester and an essay where a student development theory will be used to create a student development program. More details will be provided as the semester progresses.

Attendance Policy

Class attendance and participation is an integral part of the educational process. Students who miss class miss out on the dialectic process of exchanging ideas with the instructor and colleagues. Three absences will not affect a student’s grade. A fourth absence will result in a loss of 5% participation points.

Participation

Five-percent of the total course grade is dependent on individual students’ class participation. Every student is expected to contribute to class discussion every class period.

Writing Requirements

All papers will apply APA format guidelines. Begin papers with an APA title page. Font is to be 12 point, New Times Roman, double-spaced. Normal margins: one inch left, right, top, and bottom. Secure the paper with one staple in the top left corner. No folders please. Written assignments will be graded according to the following criteria:

- Completeness of response to the assignment: 50% of grade
- Organization and coherence: 30% of grade
- Appropriate grammar, punctuation, spelling: 15% of grade
- Paper displays correct use of student’s disciplinary format and citation style (APA, 6th Edition) for papers submitted for presentation or publication (5% of grade). Non-cited statements within a paper will result in a loss of points in accordance with the 5% earned for APA format and citation.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Respect Differing Views
As with all graduate courses, this course deals with ideas. Please be respectful of individuals with ideas and beliefs that differ from your own. If you disagree with someone then ask them why they believe as they do, and then listen to the answer. People can have complex reasoning for what is seen as, on the surface, a simple idea. Only civil and even-tempered discussions will be permitted in class.

Academic Honesty
Plagiarism within an assignment will result in a failing grade for that assignment. I expect all assignments for this course to be original works produced specifically for this course. At the instructor’s discretion, if the plagiarism may have been accidental, an assignment may be redone for a maximum grade of 80% of the original total. Work produced, whether in part or in whole, from assignments for other courses will not be accepted for credit.
Technology Use
   Personal use of computers, cell phones, or tablets is not permitted during the class session.

Late Assignments
   An electronic or hard copy of each assignment is due at the beginning of class. Electronic copies must be emailed to my TAMU email address. Hard copies will be handed in at the beginning of class. Late assignments will lose one letter grade (10%) per day late. The measurement of days ends at 11:59pm the following day of class. A new day begins at Midnight (12 am) at continues to 11:59 pm. Late assignments may be turned in via email.

Examination Policy
   Exams are timed and closed book.

Religious Holidays Policy
   Reasonable accommodation will be given to students who require class absences because of religious holidays. However, the attendance policy is still in effect.

Writing Center
   Students are encouraged to visit the A&M-Commerce Writing Center for writing assistance. Also, I am available to help with the writing process during office hours and by appointment.
