
COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is designed to lead to a basic understanding and increased enjoyment of music, with an emphasis on classical music, for students not majoring or minoring in music.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES
The students will:
• demonstrate knowledge of the fundamentals of music, its terminology, and its instruments;
• classify music’s stylistic periods, their characteristics, and representative composers and their works from each of these periods;
• differentiate between the most common structures (forms) of music;
• describe the historical, political, cultural and social trends throughout the periods studied as they apply to music

EVALUATION AND GRADING
Students in MUS 1308 will be evaluated on the following criteria:
1. Two (2) written examinations - A Midterm and a Final. (20% each, 40% total)
2. A series of assignments and quizzes, both listening and written, which will cover material discussed in class or in the course text. (30% total)
3. Concert Attendance, which will involve attending and completing a short written assignment regarding five live concerts:
   1-Vocal; 1-Woodwind or Brass; 1-Percussion; 1-Ensemble (Band, Choir, etc) 1-Stage Production (musical, opera).
   Four of the concerts must be music department presentations and one must be an outside production. Students MUST get approval BEFOREHAND to insure that their concert selection will count. (30%)
