Mission Statement

The Music Department of Texas A&M University-Commerce promotes excellence in music through the rigorous study of music history, literature, theory, composition, pedagogy, and the preparation of music performance in applied study and ensemble to meet the highest standards of aesthetic expression.

Required Textbook

The required text is Alfred's Group Piano for Adults, Bk. 1 (2nd ed.) by Lancaster & Renfrow. The text book is required for ALL classes. Forgotten books will be 5 points deducted from your final grade for each incident.

Required Practice

Students are expected to practice daily. Expect to practice a minimum of thirty minutes every day. It is almost impossible to “cram” at the last minute and pass a piano exam. You are not only expected to play the elements of your exam well, but to do so in a performance setting. Daily preparation is the only way to insure that your nerves do not get the best of you!

Attendance

Each class is worth 15 points. On quiz days, the number of points awarded will correspond with the student's quiz grade. On non-quiz days, the full number of points will be awarded for attendance. Missed quizzes will not be made up since those points are a reflection of attendance as well as performance on the quiz.

Attendance is absolutely essential to pass this course. The first two absences will not count against the student. After which, the student will receive a zero for that day's quiz/attendance points. The instructor reserves the right to drop a student from the course after four absences. Tardiness after two will result in the loss of half of that day's quiz/attendance points. Students leaving the classroom before class is dismissed will receive an absence for that day.

You must be in attendance for all exams. Missed exams will be counted as failures, and no make-ups will be allowed.

NO FOOD OR DRINK IS ALLOWED IN THE PIANO LAB AT ANY TIME!
