Course Description

This course provides a comprehensive overview of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). The course will introduce students to the fundamental components of DHS and provide an overview of some historic events that have had an impact on Homeland Security as well as provide students with a fundamental understanding of DHS’s organization, mission requirements, mission components, and critical partners.
Additional Course Description

This course will further add to the student’s knowledge base by examining commentary from Congressman Michael McCaul, Chairman of the House Homeland Security Committee, who has prioritized the threat of international and domestic terrorism, cyber security, and airport security, in his newly released novel: Failures of imagination.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to explain what DHS is.
2. Students will be able to articulate why DHS is needed.
3. Students will be able to explain how DHS protects America.
4. Students will develop an understanding of the programs designed to reduce America’s vulnerability to attack.
5. Students will develop an understanding of the programs designed to enhance America’s recovery from disaster.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

This course will provide a variety of activities and assessments to assist you in achieving the outcomes and objectives for this course. Each week you will work toward achieving these outcomes through discussion boards and exams.

A core competency of this course is critical thinking. There are numerous texts and articles that articulate and define critical thinking that students can locate and review to improve in this area. Critical thinking requires students to think through situations, facts, and issues with an open mind and in an objective way to analyze and evaluate information in an informed manner. Critical thinkers consider all points of view and carefully consider other’s perspectives.

Student Responsibilities

This course is designed to enable you to work at your own pace but, as the class web site is our classroom, you should check in regularly. This includes checking the class announcements and email. It is recommended that you check your official university email daily. Please be sure to read and review the course outline/calendar for important due dates. As mentioned, the course is designed for you to work at your own pace; however, course deadlines are firm. No late work will be accepted without prior approval.

The course is designed to begin on Monday (12:00AM) and end on Sunday (11:59PM), with the exception of the first and last week of the course.

Students are expected to have properly formatted papers/assignments. The format standard for this course is the American Psychological Association (APA) style format. To aid in properly formatting written work for this course students can purchase:

…or students can review the online manual locate at:

https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/

Discussion Forums

This class will have 10 discussion forums. Each discussion will count for a total value of 60 points towards your final grade for this course. The combined value of all 10 discussion forums is 600 points (60% of the overall course grade).

The discussion topic will be selected and a question will be formulated for you to answer. The question may consist of several parts. Be sure to read the question carefully. Be sure to answer the question entirely and post it to the discussion forum.

To receive full credit for the discussion, you are required to post your initial response (answer the question completely) by the end of the day (11:59PM) on Wednesday, then you should reply to 2 other classmate’s post by the end of the day (11:59PM) on Sunday. Think of this as a two part process:

- Part 1 – Initial response to the question
- Part 2 – Reply to 2 other classmate’s posts

This should be a conversation among students. In other words, during part 2 of this process, you should begin to reply to classmate’s post on Thursday. The purpose of the reply is to engage in conversation. Your classmate’s will need time to formulate a response. That being said, if you wait until Sunday to post a reply, then your classmate will not have time to review and respond back. Please understand this process because I will deduct points from your grade.

Your reply to your classmates must add to the discourse. As I said, this is a conversation. The simple reply, “I agree” or “That is a very interesting position” will not be sufficient. If you do not add to the conversation, then I will deduct points from your grade.

Also note that there are two other discussion forums listed in the course outline. The first discussion is your introduction to the class. A reply to other classmates is not required during week 1 due to time constraints. If you have the time, I encourage you to come back to the introductions to “chat” and get to know fellow classmates. I encourage you to read other classmate’s post. You never know what you might have in common with others. The last discussion will take place the week prior to the final exam. This discussion will take place in the same two part process as previously described. Please note that no points will be assessed for these discussions; however, you are required to participate and points will be deducted from your final grade for lack of participation.
Exams
This course will have two exams. The mid-term will be valued at 150 points (15% of the overall course grade). The final exam will be valued at 250 points (25% of the overall course grade).

The mid-term exam will cover the material (assigned reading) from Part 1 and Part 2 in the course outline. The mid-term exam will be posted on Monday (March 7) and is due by Sunday (March 13) by the end of the day (11:59PM). You will need to complete the exam and upload it to the course website in rich text format (i.e. .doc, .docx, etc.). The exam will be essay style questions and these questions may contain multiple parts. You will need to answer all of the question to receive full credit for your answer. Your answer should contain a minimum of 500 words and you will utilize the course standard APA format (6th Ed.). You may use your notes that you have taken during your assigned reading. You may not copy information from your text. The purpose of the exam is to test your individual knowledge and understanding of the material. This is not a group assignment.

The final exam will cover the material (assigned reading) from Part 3, Part 4, and Part 5 in the course outline. The final exam will be posted on Monday (May 9) and is due by Friday (May 13) by noon (12:00PM). You will need to complete the exam and upload it to the course website in rich text format (i.e. .doc, .docx, etc.) by the due date and time. The exam will be essay style questions and these questions may contain multiple parts. You will need to answer all of the question to receive full credit for your answer. Your answer should contain a minimum of 500 words and you will utilize the course standard APA format (6th Ed.). You may use your notes that you have taken during your assigned reading. You may not copy information from your text. The purpose of the exam is to test your individual knowledge and understanding of the material. This is not a group assignment.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Points Range</th>
<th>Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>900-1000</td>
<td>A or 90%-100%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>800-899</td>
<td>B or 80%-89%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>700-799</td>
<td>C or 70%-79%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>600-699</td>
<td>D or 60%-69%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0-599</td>
<td>F or 59% or Below</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Assessments

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessment</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>10 discussion forums</td>
<td>600 points (60%)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mid-term</td>
<td>150 points (15%)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Final</td>
<td>250 points (25%)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total:</td>
<td>1000 points (100%)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Remember that the lack of participation will result in the deduction of points from your overall course grade.
I have been asked in the past how one can calculate grade percentages based on the point system. I have included an example below:

To figure the percentage for a single grade, multiply the fractional grade by 100.

Points earned divided by Points available multiplied by 100

\frac{12}{15} \times 100 = 80\% \\
\frac{30}{35} \times 100 = 85.7\% \\
\frac{55}{70} \times 100 = 78.6\%

To figure out a numerical grade, add up all your earned points (total earned points), add up all the possible points (total possible points available), and write that as a fraction:

\text{Total earned points} = 12 + 30 + 55 = 97 \\
\text{Total possible points} = 15 + 35 + 70 = 120 \\
\text{Multiply this fraction by 100} = \frac{97}{120} \times 100 = 80.8333

In this example the grade would be a “B”.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

- To fully participate in online courses you will need to use a current Flash enabled browser. For PC users, the suggested browser is Google Chrome or Mozilla Firefox. For Mac users, the most current update of Firefox is suggested.

- You will need regular access to a computer with a broadband Internet connection. The minimum computer requirements are:
  - 512 MB of RAM, 1 GB or more preferred
  - Broadband connection required courses are heavily video intensive

Enrolled students will automatically receive email notifications for announcements and can opt out of this feature. To receive text notifications, students must opt in.

To begin setting up notifications, go into your course in LearningStudio and click on the bell-shaped Notifications icon on the main menu ribbon.

By default the student’s university email address will appear. This cannot be changed in LearningStudio. Additional email addresses may be added by clicking the Add button. After all of the other selections are completed be sure to click the Save and Finish button.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Interaction with Instructor Statement
My primary form of communication with the class will be through announcements and email. Any changes in the syllabus or important information critical to this class will be disseminated to students via your official university email address. It is your responsibility to check your university email on a regular basis. Students who email me outside of regular office hours can expect a reply within 24 hours Monday through Friday. Students who email me during holidays or over the weekend should expect a reply by the end of the next regularly scheduled business day.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures
Attendance/Lateness
As previously mentioned, this is an on-line course. Your actual presence in a classroom will not be required; however, your participation and contributions in class activities are required.
Late Work
As previously mentioned, no late work will be accepted without prior approval.
Missed Exams
Exams will have a start date and an end date. The exam must be taken during this period and submitted by the due dates. An exam cannot be made up; therefore, an effort to complete the exam during the assigned period must be made. If a problem still exists, then you should contact me immediately. Do not wait until the last minute to communicate an issue.

Quizzes
No quizzes will be given in this course.

Extra Credit
Extra credit may be provided at the instructor’s discretion.

Academic Honesty
Students who violate university rules on scholastic dishonesty will be subject to disciplinary penalties, including (but not limited to) receiving a failing grade on the assignment, the possibility of receiving an “F” in the course, and dismissal from the university. Policies on scholastic dishonesty will be strictly enforced. Incidents of academic dishonesty will be reported to the Department Head. Students should be aware that academic dishonesty includes (but is not limited to) cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. The mid-term and final exams are not considered group assignments.

Drop Course Policy
Your grades in this class will be an accurate reflection of your time, effort, and commitment to the subject matter. Everyone begins the class with an “A”. No curves will be assessed in the course. If you feel that you have dropped below an acceptable level in this course, it is your responsibility to contact your instructor for possible remedies, drop, or withdraw from the course.

Syllabus Change Policy
The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct
All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See current Student Guidebook).

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum (i.e. discussion boards): Netiquette http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html

ADA Statement

Students with Disabilities
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
