Course Description
This course traces the development of modern America from sectionalism thru the end of WWI. Within these critical years, the United States emerged from a country severely divided on the issues surrounding race, rebellion, reconstruction, and finally, reform to one that had been transformed thorough immigration, urbanization, and industrialization into a leading world power. Over the course of the semester, this class will examine the events and historical interpretations that are at the heart of the historical understanding of this critical period in the transformation of the United States.

Student Learning Outcomes
1. Student will develop a familiarity with the historiographical development of American History from Reconstruction to the end of World War I.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

Required Reading: All students will be required to read and to discuss the assigned books. The books are available for purchase at the campus bookstore, internet websites (Amazon), and at a variety of regional retailers.

Turnitin.com: All typed assignments, exams, papers, and reviews must be uploaded to the appropriate listing of the course’s dropbox. Each assignment dropbox automatically uploads the work to turnitin.com for plagiarism checking. This is a requirement for the course, and the students will not receive a grade until they have completed this process.
Writing Assignments
All writing assignments must be typed in 12 pt. New Times Roman font, doubled spaced, stapled and paginated with a 1” margin. Additionally, all assignments must include, on the first page, your name, assignment, my name, course number, and date. Students must submit an electronic copy to dropbox that turnitin.com can analyze and a paper copy to the instructor. If the student does not do both, the assignment will not be graded, and the student will receive a zero.

Attendance
Class attendance will be a part of your participation grade. All students will begin with 20 participation points. Starting with the second unexcused absence your attendance score will drop by ten points and after the fourth missed class, there will be a five point penalty for each additional missed class.

Essays
The students of this course are required to complete several essays during the course of the semester and to write book reviews for each of the assigned books. Book reviews are due on the day the book is discussed. Students must provide a paper copy to the professor and submit an electronic copy to the dropbox. Each student is required to complete two reception reports for books assigned during the semester. The book review and reception reports guides will be posted in docsharing.

Student Presentation
All students are required to make a class presentation regarding their research paper. Each presentation should include: a brief statement regarding the historical relevance of the topic, a statement of the research question, an analysis of the different historical arguments on the topic, a discussion of the primary and secondary sources, and finally, statement of the student’s position. Additionally, all presentations must include a PowerPoint presentation. The presentations will last approximately 10-15 minutes.

Participation
The student’s participation grade will be earned through taking part in classroom discussion sessions and attendance. Each student will lead discussions, participate in group led discussions, and present their own research. Although the student will not have a designated discussion leader role in each class, all students are encouraged to be prepared to participate fully in the class discussion and be prepared, if called upon, to take part in the class discussion. Class disruptions will not be tolerated. Each student will have one unexcused absence, for each additional absence the student will be docked ten points from their grade.

Late Submissions
All students are required to submit their assignment to the class dropbox and provide a hard copy on the day the assignment is due to the professor. For the book reviews and reception report, there will be a five-point penalty for each day the assignment is late. For the paper proposal and final paper, there is a ten-point penalty for each the day the assignment is late. The assignment is not complete unless the student has submitted an electronic copy to the dropbox and a hard copy to the professor.

Turnitin
It is the student’s responsibility to submit all written work to Turnitin.com, which is part of the ecollege dropbox system. Any work not successfully submitted thru Turnitin.com will be given a zero. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.

A twenty to twenty-five page research paper is required of all students in the course. Students are free to consider any topic within the course theme, but the topic must be cleared with the instructor. The paper must have twenty secondary sources (history monographs, books and peer-reviewed journal articles). Students will turn in a prospectus (50 points) during the seventh week of class. A late proposal and final paper will be docked (10 points) per day, regardless of the excuse. Bibliography and footnotes or endnotes are required in the prospectus and final draft of the paper in accordance with The Chicago Manual of Style or Kate L.
