STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:
Upon completion of this course the students will be able to:
1. Describe the general cycle of life in animals beginning with an unfertilized egg through maturation to adulthood.
2. Explain the sequence of events and the mechanisms directing various stages of animal development including gametogenesis, fertilization, cleavage, gastrulation, organogenesis, larval stages and maturity.
3. Explain the role of differential gene expression in embryonic development.
4. Describe how cell-cell communication and tissue induction processes direct the differentiation of cells, tissues, organs during embryogenesis.
5. Describe the general similarities and differences between invertebrate and vertebrate development.
6. Describe the similarities and differences among the classes of vertebrates with respect to embryonic patterns of cleavage, gastrulation and organogenesis.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
