Unit opening and closing dates are posted in eCollege. All assignments due the assigned timeframe must be submitted by the posted due date. The calendar found in this syllabus describes the modules found in each week of the 7-week course. Be sure to adhere to deadlines. This is a reading intensive course. I recommend you read ahead if at all possible. I will provide study guides to assist you in preparation for exams.

What to Do First
Download syllabus, then open and read the Introduction module.

How to Proceed with Class Activities Each Module

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.
1. Access and follow all course instructions found in the unit content area of the eCollege course (left navigation bar).

2. Read the assigned readings, links, and other resources provided in the syllabus and in the eCollege units. Links to documents are provided in the course units.

3. Respond to class questions or posted discussion board questions using the eCollege discussion tool. Links to the discussion boards are found under each unit content of the course on the left navigation bar of eCollege.

5. View links, briefs, and PowerPoints as assigned.

6. Complete the course assignments according to the instructions provided in this syllabus and the eCollege unit content.

Participation/Attendance: (3 points)
A grade will be given based upon your overall participation in this course. Late postings, lack of dialogue with other students within the discussion boards, etc., will affect this grade. This grade will not be entered until the last week of the course.

Discussion Board Participation (24 points: 12 @ 2 points each)
This is a very reading and study-intensive course. Each student is expected to participate through E-College, complete all reading and written assignments on time, and actively engage in class by closely connecting class topics and discussions to textbook and other readings.

- Discussion Board Instructions: Refer to Course Calendar for due dates. You must enter the discussion and post for each module within the established timeframe. Read each prompt and post at least one substantive response to that prompt. This usually takes around 150 words. Responses that are thoughtful, insightful, and supported by experiences, examples, or sources will be considered as quality responses and will receive credit. The more you involve yourself in the conversation the better your grade is likely to be. Make sure you respond to each topic posted.

  You should also respond to at least one of your peers posting for each prompt. This can be done by relating real world experiences to the discussions or building on other’s comments with alternative solutions; pointing out problems or adding another dimension to the discussion. "I agree" or "yes/no" will not be considered as quality responses and will not receive credit. Make sure to share your thoughts and experiences.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.
Student Learning Outcome: The student will articulate an understanding of basic legal concepts through examination and discussion of relevant court cases. Critical Assignment Ethics Paper: (15 points)
Each student will complete a 15-page paper regarding ethics in public schools.

(Principal Standard I – Competency 003 - Learner Centered Values and Ethics of Leadership: A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by acting with integrity and fairness and in an ethical manner)

The Rubric for the Critical Assignment in Doc Sharing will be used for grading.

Legal Briefs: (18 points: 2 @ 9 points each)
Each student will prepare two carefully articulated and thoroughly researched briefs on assigned cases pertaining to the course material and assigned reading. Upload your briefs in written format to eCollege (Doc Sharing and Dropbox). Failure to post the brief on eCollege by the required time poses a hardship for your class colleagues. Make sure to select “share file with entire class” when uploading in Doc Sharing. Be sure to also upload a copy of your briefs to the appropriate Drop Box for grading purposes. Class members will locate the assigned briefs in Doc Sharing. Do not copy or otherwise plagiarize the brief. It should be your work in your words.

Each brief should be a one-page, single-spaced paper (Times New Roman font, 12 point type, one-inch margins) summarizing the case using the following format with at least one paragraph within the conclusion discussing the impact of this case and the decision of the case to administrators. Address each of the questions or statements below. Label each section (for example, Facts, Issues, Ruling) as labeled below.

- Citation: List the legal citation for the case. This should be the title of the paper.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.
• Fact(s): Restate the legally relevant facts of the case. Discuss in detail what happened to get this case into the court system.

• Issue(s): In one sentence, identify the question to be answered. To pick out the issue, think about who is arguing and what they are arguing about. An issue statement should include the sources of the law (for example, the First Amendment, the Texas Revised Code, IDEA, etc.), the parties involved, and the issue to be decided. For example, “Was the school district guilty of discrimination?” is not significantly detailed to meet the criteria of a good issue statement. “Does the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment prevent public school districts from maintaining separate schools based on race?” contains the necessary components of an issue statement.

• Ruling: What did the courts decide? What were the results? What was the final ruling for the case?

• Rationale: Why did the court make that particular decision? What precedent or social event brought the court to this particular decision? On what did the court base these answers?

• Conclusion: How does this court decision relate to your life as an educator or administrator, and education in general? What does this ruling mean to our profession? How will our lives be altered by this decision? How will the students’ lives be altered by this decision?

Student Learning Outcome: The student will comprehend and utilize basic legal tests applied by the judiciary in their application to factual situations and cases. The student will demonstrate critical analysis by differentiating factual and evidentiary data. *(TAC 241.15 Principal Curriculum Standards (1) Principal Standard I – (b) Learner-Centered Values and Ethics of Leadership. Quality of Online Course Communication
We will be sharing personal experiences and individual reflections as we discuss course concepts. You are encouraged to share your personal and professional experiences. However, in order to assure that we can have a free and open discussion, we expect each person to respect the confidentiality of classmates. At the same time, you are asked to exercise good judgment in what you choose to share, avoiding non-public or competitively sensitive information.

Our discussion goal is to be collaborative, not combative. Experience suggests that even an innocent remark in the online environment can easily be misconstrued. We suggest you always reread and edit your responses carefully before posting in order to make certain that the wording in your message will not be seen as a personal attack. Personal attacks and harsh tones will not be tolerated and will negatively affect your grade. We expect you to be positive in your approach to others and diplomatic with your words. Your instructors are also committed to do the same in all of our communications.

Interaction with Instructor
Email is the best way to reach the instructor during weekdays. During the workweek, a reply will be sent within 24 hours, depending upon the time your message was received. If you do not receive a response, please assume your message was not received and email again or contact the instructor via telephone.
