 - 3.1 Describe the legal governance of higher education.
 - 3.2 Define academic freedom and describe its applications and limitations.

- 3.3 Discuss the relationship of the law with college faculty.
- 3.4 Discuss the relationship of the law with college students.
- 3.5 Identify the legal constraints on discrimination, including harassment, and discuss the current role of affirmative action in higher education.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional Methods/Activities/Assessments

As a core class for the Higher Education doctorate, Higher Education and the Law is a rigorous course that requires superior performance by students. Hence, all students will be held to the highest expectations in all course requirements.

Completion of a preliminary quiz over legal knowledge (to be completed online in Week 1).

Completion of an open-book proficiency test on the course syllabus and course introductory presentation and materials (to be completed prior to Week 4). [Note—this test cannot be repeated.]

Readings in the course text as assigned and in supplementary outside resources as necessary.

Participation in group discussion (per assigned groups) of reading assignments.

Participation in online threaded discussion over each text reading assignment. [Note—late participation will receive a lower grade—see below.]

Weekly tests over text reading assignments. [Note—these tests are intended to be completed ONLY after completion of each week's reading as well as group discussion and threaded discussion of the reading.]

A final exam.

All doctoral students must submit a paper addressing four of the major concepts from the course: academic freedom, faculty role, legal relationship of students to institution, and discrimination (to be submitted in Week 14). Papers will be evaluated on content and compliance with APA standards. [NOTE: late submissions WILL RECEIVE REDUCED CREDIT.] The length of paper and any use of outside resources besides the text are to be determined by the student. The paper should be formatted with major headings matching the four major concepts listed above.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

This course will be using the eCollege platform for course delivery and for all student submissions and discussion. All direct communication with the class and the professor will be conducted in the appropriate week's threaded discussion session. Group discussions may utilize any technological link preferred by the individual group.

Access to the library's available databases via the student's MyLeo account will be required, unless the student prefers to use the library's holdings in person.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

To access the eCollege platform, students should type the following address into their internet browser: <https://leo.tamuc.edu/login.aspx>.

Students will need their CWID and password to log in to the course. Students who do not know their CWID or have forgotten their password should contact Technology Services at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment (Texas A&M University-Commerce Procedure A12.08—see Student Guidebook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct).

All graduate students are expected to maintain high standards of academic integrity and honesty. Academic dishonesty, as defined in Texas A&M University-Commerce Procedure 13.99.99.R0.10, will incur a penalty commensurate with the severity of the infraction, from failure on the applicable assignment to failure in the course. A report of each infraction also is submitted to the Graduate School for further action.

A&M-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information, or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Texas Senate Bill 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and A&M-Commerce Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations, please refer to (<http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02.R1.pdf>) and/or consult your event organizer). Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M-Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.

Students with Disabilities:

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal antidiscrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Office of Student Disability Resources and Services, Texas A&M University-Commerce, Gee Library, Room 162, Phone (903) 886-5150 or (903) 886-5835, Fax (903) 468-8148 (StudentDisabilityServices@tamuc.edu)
