Course Description-Hours: 3
Crop Production Practicum. Three semester hours (1 lecture, 4 lab). Study of crop production practices in this area by actually planting, growing, harvesting, and marketing a crop: (a) Wheat or Oats; (b) Corn; (c) Grain Sorghum; (d) Cotton. A report, including costs and returns, will be due upon completion of the project. Course may be repeated when subject varies, up to a maximum of 9 hours. Prerequisite: PlS 115.

Student Learning Outcomes
By the end of this course, student will be able to:
1. Create and develop a crop production plan.
2. Identify, anticipate, track and troubleshoot problems and pests associated with growing a crop.
3. Plant, grow, and harvest a specific crop using standard production techniques.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Student Responsibility:
1) Submit a schedule of times available to work their farming project and telephone numbers where they can be reached. Students are encouraged to stay in touch with Mr. Stewart about field conditions. The most conscientious students try to be available to work when called.
2) Students will perform routine maintenance check before each use of equipment (check all fluids, air; visual check for loose, missing, or broken parts).
3) Student will prepare field to be planted (this will include both primary and secondary tillage).
4) Student will prepare for planting by loading seed and fertilizer and adjusting planting rates.
5) Student will plant his/her own crop.
6) Student will cultivate and spray crop as needed.
7) Student will harvest his/her own crop.
8) Student will perform maintenance and repairs on equipment, if needed.

GRADING

Grade will be based on level of participation in course. The successful student will complete all aspects of crop production and attend scheduled course meetings. A paper will be submitted at the conclusion of their project. Students can keep up to $500 in profits, and CCRI will dispense profit check to student when final paper is submitted and approved. If final report is not submitted within 90 days after harvest, profit will be forfeited. Grading will be based on the following:
