COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OUTCOMES

By exploring art from all over the world since the 1960s, this course examines the way that contemporary art reflects shifting political trends, the explosion of popular culture, the conflation of high art and kitsch, activist movements, and a total reimagining of the potential of art. Not only will this course serve to introduce students to contemporary art and artists, but we will also explore curatorial and exhibition practices. Students will complete a major research project for this course, developing their own thematic exhibition and writing the accompanying labels and brochures. Additionally, students will have two exams that will require memorization and analytical discussion of artwork and artistic movements.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- discuss and explain historically significant works of contemporary art
- become acquainted with the characteristic features of the major styles and movements from 1960 to present
- learn to analyze the relationships among content, context, and style
- acquire a working knowledge of the specialized vocabulary used in art history
- develop ability to analyze important documents, artist writings, and criticism
- enhance visual literacy and critical thinking skills

RESPONSIBILITIES AND ASSESSMENT

Students' ability to meet the course objectives and learning outcomes will be evaluated through written assignments, class participation, exams, and essay questions.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK

Michael Archer, Art Since 1960, 3rd Edition, ISBN: 0500204241 and Kristine Stiles and Peter Selz, eds., Theories and Documents of Contemporary Art (September 2012) ISBN – 9780520257184 - You are required to bring the Stiles/Selz text every day.

RECOMMENDED TEXTBOOK:

Jonathan Fineberg, Art Since 1940, 3rd Edition (July 2010) ISBN - 0131934791

ADDITIONAL READINGS

Available on ecollege or will be handed out in class. You are expected to bring the assigned readings to class.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Grade Breakdown:

10% Participation
 15% Reading Responses
 26% Exhibition Project
 22% Exam #1
 27% Exam #2

Grade Scale:

A = 90%-100%
 B = 80%-89%
 C = 70%-79%
 D = 60%-69%
 F = 59% or Below

Participation: Each person is expected to come to class prepared, which means having completed the reading, brought appropriate textbook, paper, and writing utensils, and ready to engage in the class. The class should not just be a lecture, rather, people are encouraged to speak up, contribute to the conversation and ask questions. A major part of the participation requirement is ATTENDANCE, which is mandatory.

Attendance: Each student in this course is allowed no more than three unexcused absences. Each absence after this results in the lowering of the grade by 1/3 of a letter grade. When a student accrues more than eight unexcused absences the instructor has the right to drop the student from the course or to give them a failing grade.

Unexcused absences require no explanation. For an absence to be considered excused, appropriate documentation must be presented. Excused absences are defined in The Student Guidebook and various university policies, but the policy employed in this class is confined to the following: (1) Participation in pre-approved University activities such as athletic events, sponsored field trips, and travel for specific University-related academic reasons; (2) Verifiable legal proceedings; (3) Documented cases of illness, injury, or emergencies. All such excuses must be shown to the instructor in original, written, documentary form within 7 days of the absence(s) together with a photocopy for the instructor's records. (Please understand that this copy is a student's only record of an absence.) In lieu of documentation, absences become unexcused and are counted as such.

Exams: Throughout the course, you will have two exams. They will have the following components: slide identifications (where you must identify the artist/title/date/style of the photograph), short answer questions, compare/contrast problems, and essay questions. These exams will NOT be cumulative; they will only cover material preceding the exam.

Exhibition Project: A major part of this course is the research project where you will curate a thematic exhibition. This is your chance to envision an ideal show – you can include paintings, sculpture, performance art pieces, video, installation art, etc. This requires you think about how different works relate to one another, exhibition design, the research that is incorporated into creating exhibitions and the materials that the public can take with them after the show, such as brochures. This project will also require significant research.

Reading Response Papers:

Must complete short responses for four of the six articles listed below (everyone must write a response to Fried's "Art and Objecthood" on 9/10 AND the three articles on Basquiat on 10/15. The other two articles are your choice). The response is due on the date the reading is to be completed.

Sept 10 - Fried, "Art and Objecthood"

Sept 19 - Krauss, "Sculpture in an Expanded Field"

Oct 1 – Piper, "The Triple Negation of Colored Women Artists"

Oct 15 - Hughes, "Jean-Michel Basquiat: Requiem for a Featherweight;" Gopnik, "Madison Avenue Primitive;" hooks, "Altars of Sacrifice: Re-membering Basquiat" (discuss all THREE articles)

Oct 29 - Fusco, "Passionate Irreverence: The Cultural Politics of Identity"

Nov 12- Dubin, "When Elephants Fight: How Sensation Became Sensational"

These responses are designed to show that you have a critical understanding of the reading. They should be 2-4 pages, and composed of three parts.

1. Make very clear the thesis and main argument of the article.
2. Summarize the article in YOUR WORDS. Use quotes from the article only sparingly. If you use quotes, you must make sure to put the page number from where the quote is taken. Artwork titles must be italicized.
3. Address the author's argument. What were its strengths? What worked? At the same time, be critical and address the issues and the problems the article brings up.

FORMATTING

All written assignments must be typed using the following guidelines: 12 pt. Times New Roman font, 1" margins, double-spaced, with page numbers. Artwork titles must be italicized. Failure to format properly will result in a lower grade.

SAMPLE OUTLINE FOR A RESPONSE PAPER

- I. Introduction
 - a. Identify the article being criticized
 - b. Present thesis of the article discussed
 - c. Preview your argument – what are the steps you will take to prove your argument (this could be something like- the author successfully supports her/his thesis with strong evidence or the author makes a good point, s/he fails to support it, etc.)
- II. Short summary of the article
 - a. Does not need to be comprehensive
 - b. Present only what the reader needs to know to understand your argument
- III. Your argument - likely will involve a number of sub-arguments –mini-theses you prove to prove your larger argument true. For example, if your thesis was that the author's presumption is that photography is not art, you might prove this by:
 - i. Clarifying how the author is defining art
 - ii. Explaining how photography does not meet that definition
 - iii. Outlining the author's discussion of how that affects the photography.
- IV. Conclusion
 - a. Reflect on how you have proven your argument.
 - b. Point out the importance of your argument.

HANDING IN ASSIGNMENTS

All written assignments must be turned in online to Brightspace/D2L by 11AM (class start time) the day due, unless stated. Assignments will NOT be accepted over ONE week late. For each class day late, the grade will be reduced by ½ letter grade.

FORMATTING

All written assignments must be typed using the following guidelines: 12 pt. Times New Roman font, 1" margins, double-spaced, with page numbers. Failure to format properly will result in a lower grade. Artwork titles MUST be italicized.

EMAIL POLICY: For all emails sent, please include full name, student ID, and the class that you are attending (this is a school policy). Do not send emails to myself and other professors at once, as each professor has different issues to address. Emails will be answered in the span of two weekdays (so an email on Fri will be answered by Tue).

SYLLABUS CHANGE POLICY

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

NONDISCRIMINATION NOTICE

Texas A&M University-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

STATEMENT ON ACCOMMODATIONS FOR ADA ELIGIBLE STUDENTS:

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Office of Student Disability Resources and Services, Texas A&M University-
Commerce, Gee Library, Room 132
Phone (903) 886-5150 or (903) 886-5835, Fax (903) 468-8148
StudentDisabilityServices@tamuc.edu

After contacting the Office of Student Disability Resources and Services, it is the student's responsibility to notify the instructor of what accommodations are needed IN ADVANCE of when they are needed (for example, if testing accommodations are necessary, please inform the instructor with appropriate documentation at LEAST one week before the test date).

CLASSROOM POLICIES:

Statement on Student Behavior:

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenet of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment (See Student's Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct – located here:

<http://www.tamuc.edu/Admissions/oneStopShop/undergraduateAdmissions/studentGuidebook.aspx>).

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: Netiquette
<http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

All students must show respect toward the instructor and the instructor's syllabus, presentations, assignments, and point of view. Students should respect each others' differences. If the instructor determines that a student is not being respectful towards other students or the instructor, it is the instructor's prerogative to ask the student to leave, to refer the student to the department head, and to consider referring the student to the Dean of Students who may consider requiring the student to drop the course. Please refer to pages 42 – 46 of the Texas A&M University-commerce Student guidebook's Codes of Conduct for details.

Prohibited during class:

- Cell Phones/Blackberries/MP3 Players: Please keep these devices off while class is in session. It is disrespectful to your classmates. No cell phones are allowed during exam sessions. If you need to check the time, consult the clock in the classroom. Repeated use of these devices will result in being asked to leave.
- Computers and tablets
- Headphones of any kind
- Sleeping
- Sunglasses
- Disruptive or distracting behavior: Texting, conversing with other students during class, loud eating, etc.
- Repeated entering/exiting the classroom: Please be on time to class. Not only is disruptive to the class environment, but you could miss important class announcements. This is a short class, so there should be no need to come in and out throughout the class period. Additionally, repeated tardiness will count with your absences, and could result in a lower grade.

Academic Dishonesty: There is no tolerance for any kind of academic dishonesty in this course. This includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism, cheating on exams, theft of instructional material or exams, representing the work of someone else as one's own, and misrepresenting absences. Academic dishonesty is a severe transgression and may result in referral to the Dean of Students, expulsion from class and/or the University, and a failing grade.

For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty see the following procedures:

Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty 13.99.99.R0.03

Discussion: In this class, we will look at a wide array of artwork, some of which might include nudity, intense language, violence, etc. Each person will bring their own experiences to the art, and should feel comfortable expressing their opinions and vulnerabilities. The classroom is a safe environment, and each student should behave with integrity and treat their peers with respect.

TEST AND GRADE POLICY:

Make-up exams will be administered only in instances of excused absences (and acceptable documentation) and may not be designed in the same format as the regularly-scheduled exam. When an excused absence causes a student to miss an exam, it is the student's responsibility to inform--or to have someone else notify--the instructor within 4 days of the exam. If permitted, these exams must be made up within two weeks of the scheduled date, at a time and place determined by the professor.

Assignments are due at the start of the class on the assigned date. Late work will only be accepted for one week after the due date, and the grade will be penalized. Concerning grade decisions, I will not discuss specific grades on ANY assignment or test the day it is returned. If you have concerns regarding a grade, email me within one week of receiving the assignment back clearly explaining why you think the assignment was addressed incorrectly. After the email is received, we will then set up an appointment to discuss the concern.

 THERE WILL BE NO EXTRA CREDIT

Note: Personal computer problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, an Internet cafe, or a bookstore, such as Barnes & Noble, etc.

IMPORTANT HEALTH & SAFETY ISSUES:

All students enrolled in face-to-face studio art courses are required to comply with the procedures and policies of the Department of Art's Health and Safety Guidelines. The Guidelines cover activities in all A&M-Commerce art facilities on both the main campus and off-campus sites. Please report any safety issues immediately to your instructor(s), facilities technician / Health & Safety liaison, or studio / lab assistant. At the beginning of each semester in every course, the instructor will discuss with their students the inherent risks associated with art facilities and make sure they have read and completed the online Health & Safety Guidelines form.
