Required Textbook(s):

Experiencing Theatre (ISBN: 9781585104086)

Netflix subscription required

Course Description:

The purpose of Introduction to Theatre is to familiarize students with the basic elements of plays and productions and to help students develop the analytical skills to think, speak, and write critically about the theatre.

Course Ethics and Attendance: (Note that attendance alone does not constitute participation.)

Promptness, attendance, and "attentiveness" are valued in this class. Please behave accordingly and do not disrupt the class with excessive talk or the use of cell phones or other devices. A willingness to give theatre and its many forms a chance is most appreciated. It is assumed that students will work cooperatively with one another, and all work that is not "original" will be properly credited. See the TAMUC Student's Guide Handbook for more information on plagiarism. This is a serious offense that can result in separation from the university. EVEN if not specifically noted on instructions or prompts for each assignment, plagiarism policies will be strictly enforced.

Student Learning Outcomes: By the end of this course, the student will be able to: 1) Become a more informed, critical audience member 2) Gain a basic understanding of the elements of dramatic structure and of theatrical production 3) Learn to evaluate the artistic quality of a script and a performance 4) Gain appreciation of how plays reflect the people and cultures that produce them 5) Gain understanding of the relationship of theatre to the other arts and humanities

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments:

First Assignment: Brownie Points

Reading/Lecture/Video Quizzes: 500 points (10 quizzes @ 50 points each)

Performance Review: 100 points

Monologue Performance: 100 points

Children's Play Script: 100 points

Final Exam: 100 points

1000-900 = A; 899-800 = B; 799-700 = C; 699-600 = D; below 600 = F Assignments

Explained:

First Assignment: This is your introduction to the course and to me. Write a ½ page, MLA formatted (1-inch margins, 12-point Times New Roman font, double-spaced) paper telling me about yourself. Have you done theatre before? If so, what have you done? Have you seen any shows? If so, what have you seen? Why are you taking this course? What are your college plans? Major, etc.? On the second half of the page, insert a picture of yourself. Any possible points for this assignment will not be added until the end of the semester. I will not accept Pages or Google Docs—Word or PDF documents only!

Reading/Lecture Quizzes: Throughout the semester, students will take a series of quizzes designed to assess retention of lecture materials. These will consist of definitions, fill-in-the-blank, short answer, etc. Each quiz is worth 50 points for a semester total of 500 points. These will fall at the end of each unit as specified in the calendar. (Chapters 1-6)

Tests: There is one test in this course. The final exam will be comprehensive (covering material from the entire course). It will consist of short answer, fill-in-the-blank, definitions, etc. This test is worth 100 points.

Performance Review: Students are required to watch ONE live performance over the course of the semester and respond in a written review analyzing different elements of the production. A more detailed list of instructions is included at the end of the syllabus. This paper is worth 100 points. Essays must be at least two full pages in length and use MLA formatting. This includes italicizing the show titles throughout the entirety of the paper. (You may use first person, but do not use 2nd person. Students will receive an automatic 10-point deduction for using 2nd person.) (Chapter 5) I will not accept Pages or Google Docs—Word or PDF documents only!

*As COVID continues to keep theaters closed, I will provide a list of alternative online options under Discussions.

Children's Play Script: Students will create a 10-minute children's play focusing on a current event. The issue must be controversial, current, and relevant (i.e. coronavirus, bullying, immigration, LGBTQ community members, etc.). The play should include movement, age-appropriate dialogue, and be equal in its division of parts/lines. (A good rule of thumb is a minute per page.) There is a formatting example in D2L.

How would we as theatre artists use theatre to help children deal with this issue? You must use all six elements of Aristotle's Hierarchy, including sound and spectacle. Use the Plot Structure Diagram to help you as you create your story. You may use any type of character, from people to animals to concepts. You have creative control, but keep in mind that this should appeal to elementary-school-aged children! (Chapter 6)

Monologue Performance: Students will choose one 2-minute monologue from a contemporary theatre piece and upload a video performance on YouTube. Scripts are available online or in the campus library. Monologues must be memorized. Students must turn in a copy of the page from the script containing the monologue to the appropriate D2L drop box. Students may scan or take a photo of the script page, but I must be able to see the full page, including the title. Students must post the link for Discussion #4. At the beginning of the video, students will introduce themselves: "Hi, my name is _____, and this is (character's name)'s monologue from (name of the play)" and then perform. At the end, say "Thank you" and then end the video.

Discussion Posts: Throughout the semester, students will participate in online discussions. These discussions should include college-level writing and analysis. Each student must respond to at least four classmates per discussion. Each post and reply must be at least 100 words and contribute to the overall discussion.

II. TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS:

WORKING EMAIL REQUIREMENT: It is a course expectation that you have a working email address that you check daily. If you have not already acquired an email address through the university or otherwise, please make arrangements to do so. There WILL be times that I need to contact you with important information, and email is often the quickest way to do so.

WRITTEN WORK: Unfortunately, papers/projects do occasionally get lost. Please, for your sanity, save your work on a thumb drive, etc. Do not depend on your paper staying on the hard drive of any university computer, as it will be deleted, altered, or worse – turned in by someone else as their work! Be aware that it is a course expectation that you keep copies of your assignments until you receive your final grade for the semester.

TIMELINESS OF ASSIGNMENTS: All work will be completed and uploaded on time. Late work will be accepted at the instructor's discretion. Excuses for late work will only be accepted with verifiable documented proof from a reputable source. (Example: In an emergency room for multiple days.) Problems with Internet service providers, computers, or not backing up one's work will not be considered acceptable. Become familiar with alternatives, such as the public library, Internet cafés, or friends.

III. COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT:

Contacting Me:

I am here to help! If something is occurring that is presenting you with difficulties in this class, let me know. I cannot help you if I don't know what is going on. The easiest and most reliable way to contact me is via email. Please do not leave a message for me in the main department office. If you will be communicating with me via email, always write in clear and complete sentences, using proper grammar and punctuation. Also, SIGN YOUR NAME, otherwise, sometimes, I don't know who it is from. If you plan on having a job someday that may utilize email, just think of it as practice. That said, I rarely answer emails on the weekends or after 5pm. Give yourself enough time to get an answer!

As COVID-19 continues, I will allow a certain amount of leeway, but students must contact me and stay in contact as best as is possible.

Extra Credit:

I have extra credit opportunities built into this class. Take advantage of extra questions on quizzes, etc. and you will be fine. I do not offer extra credit opportunities outside of the curriculum—do the work.

Incompletes:

Under normal circumstances, an Incomplete (I or X) will NOT be given for a final grade in this course. - ❖ How does the show handle The Other? Women? Race?
- ❖ Who is the intended audience? Why?
- ❖ Look around: what type of space is the show in (proscenium, arena, black box, alley, thrust)? A combination? (Look at the audience!)
 - ❖ What is the play's theme/meaning/message?
- ❖ What was your experience? Did you enjoy the production? Why or why not? How was the acting, etc.?
- ❖ What is the plot structure? Linear? Cinematic? Contextual?
- How does the show utilize Aristotle's Elements?
- Does the play fit the French Academy's rules? Why or why not?
- Look at the set: what type is it? Box? Realistic Exterior? Twodimensional? Unit? Projections? More than one of these? How does it move? Wagons? Rotating? Elevator? Fly system?
- What style of show is it? (Realism, Antirealism, Existentialism, Expressionism, Futurism, Surrealism, Epic/Cruelty/Absurd, Romanticism, Theatricalism, Dadaism?) A combination?

- What genre is it? Why? (Comedy (High, Domestic, Low, Farce), Drama, Tragedy, Melodrama, Tragicomedy?) Does it combine these?
- If your selection is online, how does seeing the show on a screen affect your interpretation of the show? Is it still as effective as seeing it live?
