Follow-Up
MyLeo Email

Students were concerned about overwhelming number of emails in myleo. Suggestions included color coding emails to make it easier to identify important/academic issues from event announcements, etc.

Pedestrian Crosswalks

Students still want crosswalks to WalMart and Brookshires. There are difficulties in working with the Texas Highway System.

Campus Lighting

Facilities is aware of the problem and they are working to improve situation.

Faculty Involvement

Faculty will be in attendance at Mane Event and the Football game. Suggestions from students included getting involved with the Pin Exchange and involving faculty in organization activities.

Library Hours

The library will conduct a survey to determine if being open until midnight is working. Looking to turn 1st floor into study rooms.

New Issues

A student attend the football game on Saturday not knowing that she could get in free, so she paid $5 at the gate. The response from a staff member when she inquired was not student friendly.

Meal Plan Change.

A student thanked Dr. Hendrix for making the laundry free.

Street signs are confusing and sometimes give conflicting directions.

Students would like to see the infirmary web page accessible through the main home page and would like prices posted.

Students were concerned about the Prairie Crossing security gates and suggested using a card swipe service for access to the laundry, the workout room and the gates.

Students are still concerned about the crosswalks and whether the data shows the new lights are making them safer. Also, the sign on Monroe Street is too high for good visibility. Cars are not stopping for pedestrians.

The old Music building will be torn down and the green space expanded. There are no current plans for additional parking areas on campus at this time.

Motorcycles should use designated motorcycle parking areas.

Berry Hall – doors are up off the ground allowing bugs, etc. to enter rooms.

Students would like designated carts for transporting items from WalMart and would like to see a shuttle service.

A student expressed fear over the cats that are around the library late at night.

Students requested we advertise the Student Forums sooner with creative fliers.

Cafeteria hours on the weekend and late nights could be more accessible.
