Announcements

Respondus Renewed - New Password:

The agreement with Respondus has been renewed by the FCTT for eCollege courses. After July 31, 2013, faculty using Respondus will be prompted for the new password. The installation password is: ZR421362718-714432988 (Password valid through: July 31st 2014).

For assistance, contact the Jess Lamphere@tamuc.edu.

A&M-Commerce Library URL update:

The Library link in eCollege courses has expired. This is the correct URL: www.tamuc.edu/library. The update is simple. Faculty can update the link by following the directions in this How To Video. <http://www.screencast.com/t/8dE5cD7RSU>.

For assistance, contact the FCTT at 903-886-5511 or online@tamuc.edu.

eCollege Face Lift:

A&M-Commerce online courses will have a fresh new look. The function and features are all the same and work the same as before. Only the colors and icons have been updated. The Faculty Center for Teaching with Technology and eCollege will roll-out the new online course design in the May Mini, Summer I, and Summer II. All online courses will have the new design by Fall 2013.

Criminal Justice was the first program to see this new design as it was applied to all CJ courses beginning May 17, 2013. History, Literature & Languages, and Political Science courses were updated with the new look on May 31. Applied Sciences, General Business & MIS, and Marketing & Management rolled-out for classes starting July 8. All remaining courses will roll-out for the Fall 2013 term. Know that only the look of the page, colors, and icons have changed. The course content, grades, and assignments will not be affected.
