Lactation Room

Use Agreement and Release Statement

The Lactation Room offers breastfeeding women who work and/or attend classes at Texas A&M University Commerce a private place to express their breast milk. Located in Gee Library, the Lactation Room will be open during regular Library hours. Although appointments are not always necessary; there is a sign-up sheet in the room, so users can schedule a time. Each user must sign a “Use and release Statement.”

When using the Breastfeeding Mothers’ Room, I, __________________________(print), agree to observe scheduling and housekeeping procedures outlined below:

- I understand the Breastfeeding Mothers’ Room is open during regular Library hours.
- I am responsible for bringing my own pumping supplies, including the breast pump.
- I am responsible for bringing my own cooler to transport milk, there are personal lockers and a refrigerator in the lactation room. Please supply your own lock to secure items.
- I will leave the Breastfeeding Mothers’ Room in order after using it and will report any problems or broken equipment to the Customer Service Desk.

I understand the Lactation Room is a public service provided for breastfeeding women who work at and/or attend Texas A&M University Commerce, and the University will not be responsible for any losses, injuries, or other damages that I might experience as a result of using the Breastfeeding Mothers’ Lactation Room or any equipment or furnishings of the room.

I have read and understand the items above.
