Highlights

- Located near Dallas/Fort Worth, Texas A&M University-Commerce serves nearly 12,000 students and is the second-largest member of The Texas A&M University System.

Highlights

- NCAA Division II athletic teams, a thriving Greek system, and over 120 student organizations with more than 2,500 students involved. Organizations include religious and ethnic organizations.

- The state-of-the-art planetarium at Texas A&M University-Commerce has a 40-foot dome and a Digistar 5 all-digital projection system which fills the dome with sights and sounds beyond imagination.

- The planetarium's 87 reclined seats immerse the audience in a space environment, filling their vision and appearing to take them beyond the confines of Earth.

- The International Student Services Office and the International Students at Texas A&M University-Commerce invite everyone from surrounding schools, towns, and communities to learn more about the world and its cultures at its Annual Multicultural Festival.

- Currently, A&M-Commerce enrolls over 1,000 international students representing over 50 countries. The sponsored festival allows students the opportunity to represent and showcase their countries and cultures with exotic food tasting, arts, crafts, displays, as well as talent and fashion shows.

Traditions

- The name "Lions" was adopted as a team mascot in 1919. At the Homecoming game in 1971, Klondike freshman Tommie Dodd became the first human "Lucky the Lion".

- By the mid-1940s, the tune of Corrine, which has no words, was adopted as the fight song.
- With the 1917 fielding of its first athletic team as a state college, blue and gold was recognized as the school colors.
- University Seal includes Professor Mayo's motto: Ceaseless Industry, Fearless Investigation, Unfettered Thought.

- Over 125 years of tradition make Texas A&M-Commerce unique. Join in and become part of the proud heritage and experience a little LION Magic!
