

William Holland

| wholland@leomail.tamuc.edu

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS:

- Over four years of experience working with and two years training horses
- Over five years of experience as a small farm owner/manager responsible for animal breeding, nutrition, sales, maintenance, herd health and dairy goat herd testing
- Proven skills in problem solving, project management, presentations and working in high stress environments

EDUCATION:

Bachelor of Science in Equine Studies, Cum Laude, 5/2015

Texas A&M University-Commerce, Commerce, TX

Bachelor of Science in Economics, 8/2006

University of Utah, Salt Lake City, UT

RELEVANT COURSE WORK:

Introduction to Animal Science	Stable Management	Vet Techniques for the Equine
Equine Reproduction	Intro to Equine Science	Beef Cattle Management
TAMU-Commerce - Ag Dept Farm Internship	IACUC certified	BQA certified 12/2015, 8/2016

RELATED EXPERIENCE:

Graduate Assistant Research/Teaching, Fall 2015 to present

Texas A&M University-Commerce, Commerce, TX

- Assisted in the instruction of Introduction to Animal Science and Reproduction labs
- Contributed to the successful monitoring of bred cows via palpations and sonograms
- Created quizzes, class assignments as well as graded exams, quizzes and assignments

WORK HISTORY:

Farm Internship, Texas A&M University-Commerce, Commerce, TX, 6/2014 to 9/2014

Farm Owner/Manager, Fusion Farms, Caddo Mills, TX 75135, 5/2011 to Present

Intelligence Analyst, Texas Army National Guard, Austin, TX, 10/2010 to Present

HONORS:

Graduated Cum Laude from Texas A&M University-Commerce BS of Equine Studies, 5/2015

President's List, Texas A&M University-Commerce, Commerce, TX, Fall 2014

Dean's List, Texas A&M University-Commerce, Commerce, TX, Spring 2014

Commandant's Honor List, U.S. Army Advanced Leadership Course, Ft. Devens, MA, 7/2013