

Steven Lilley

2507 Lee Street, 4th Floor, Greenville, TX 75482
(903) 243-8519
slilleylaw@gmail.com

Work Experience

Felony and Misdemeanor Prosecutor February 2010 – Present
Hunt County District & County Attorney, Greenville, TX

- Extensive jury trial experience, including six (6) murder trials
- Regularly work with experts including those in the fields of forensic pathology, DNA, firearms and trace evidence
- Review hundreds of cases every year to determine whether the case is prosecutable and ready to be presented to grand jury for indictment
- Work closely with law enforcement on a daily basis, including answering legal questions, reviewing search and arrest warrants, and striving to maintain a high quality of cases to ensure a likelihood of success in court
- Write briefs on behalf of the State to the courts of appeals
- Present oral arguments as requested by the courts of appeals

Adjunct Professor of Paralegal Studies August 2015 – Present
Texas A&M University at Commerce, Political Science Department

- Teach undergraduate level courses to students earning bachelor degrees and seeking to become certified paralegals
- Courses taught include Civil Procedure, Legal Research, Business Law, and Probate
- Member of the Administrative Committee responsible for guiding the direction of the Paralegal Studies program

Attorney in Private Practice March 2009 – February 2010

- Represented retained and appointed clients in felony and misdemeanor court
- Met with potential clients to discuss legal needs and representation

Assistant District Attorney January 2005 – August 2006
Hopkins County, Sulphur Springs, TX September 2007 – March 2009

Associate Attorney – Criminal Defense August 2006 – September 2007
The Carlson Law Firm P.C., Killeen, TX

Education

Juris Doctorate - Baylor University School of Law, Waco, TX Spring 2004

- Top 35% of class

B.A. in Psychology - Baylor University, Waco, TX Spring 1999

- Graduated magna cum laude, cumulative GPA: 3.86/4.0