

Brittany Starnes, MSN, RNC-NIC

brittanygreen46@gmail.com

Certified Registered Nurse with over four years of successful experience in the Neonatal ICU clinical setting. Recognized consistently for performance excellence and contributions to improve outcomes in the unit. Two years as adjunct faculty at Tarleton State University. Fostering growth and learning through innovative assignments and time with students.

EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Instructor, 01/2021 to Current

Tarleton School of Nursing - Stephenville, TX

- Streamlined curriculum of online courses while fostering student growth.
- Created objectives in correlation with class and student requirements.
- Collaborated with students and faculty to improve performance through skill enhancing education techniques.
- Courses taught: Informatics for Junior 1 and Senior 1

Remediation Specialist, 01/2021 to Current

Tarleton School of Nursing - Stephenville, TX

- Streamlined HESI testing for all campuses and cohorts using Elsevier Evolve and ProctorU.
- Analyzed all testing results and remediation time to accurately develop a success plan for students.
- Collaborated with students and faculty to improve performance through skill enhancing remediation techniques while tracking student

Registered Nurse (Temporary contract), 11/08/2021 to current

Cook Children's Level IV NICU - Fort Worth, TX

.

Registered Nurse, 02/2019 to 8/16/2022

John Peter Smith Hospital Level III NICU - Fort Worth, TX

EDUCATION

Master of Science: in Nursing (MSN) Education , 12/2020

- Tarleton State University - Stephenville, TX

Bachelor of Science: in Nursing (BSN), 12/2018

- Tarleton State University - Stephenville, TX

SKILLS

- Assessment
- Critical Care
- Critical thinking
- Strong clinical judgment
- Process improvement
- Collaboration
- Adaptive
- Patient and family education
- Time Management
- Epic/EMR
- Current Texas license
- RNC-NIC
- NRP
- BLS
- STABLE

