

Curriculum Vita

Instructor: Fred Stewart, instructor

Academic Department: Literature & Languages

Office Phone: 903-886-5231

University Email Address: Fred.Stewart@tamuc.edu

EDUCATION

Master of Arts (Communication/Journalism, Morehead State University (Ky), 1980)

Bachelor of Arts (Journalism/History, University of Texas-Tyler, 1976)

TEACHING & PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1993-present, Instructor of Journalism/Student Publications Adviser, Texas A&M-Commerce

1991-1993, Head, Department of Journalism/Student Publications Adviser, Ohlone College (Freemont, Calif.)

1990-1991, Public Information Officer, Santa Maria Joint Union High School District (Santa Maria, Calif.)

1985-1990, Assistant Professor of Journalism, Northern Arizona University (Flagstaff, Arizona)

1980-1985, Head, Department of Journalism/Student Publications Adviser, News Bureau Director, Yavapai College (Prescott, Arizona)

1975-1980, Director of News Services, Instructor of Journalism, Morehead State University (Morehead, Kentucky)

1974-1975, Director of Public Information, East Texas State University-Texarkana (Texarkana, Texas)

Sports Editor, Editor, Publisher, weekly and daily newspapers in Texas and Arizona, state sports magazine in Arizona

PUBLICATIONS

Articles published in newspapers, magazines and journals; chapter on Plagiarism published in "Communication Writings; Some Beginnings" by Martin D. Sommerness.

STUDENT MEDIA

2000-present, Executive Director, Texas Intercollegiate Press Association (nation's oldest and largest state college press association)

1988-1990, Executive Director, Rocky Mountain Collegiate Press Association (represented college student media in 15 Rocky Mountain area states)