ONLINE PROGRAMS

We offer several degree programs that are 50% to 100% online. If you are looking to earn a degree and need to maintain a flexible schedule, check out the online degree programs indicated with a *. An academic advisor can help you review the online opportunities available to you.

Before you begin an online program that leads to a professional license, please contact the appropriate licensing agency to verify that the online program meets licensing requirements.

ADVISING

Success coaches help students transition into college life by providing academic, financial, personal and career counseling. Transfer students, regardless of classification, will work with a success coach until they have completed:

- The university's basic skills requirements.
- 30 semester hours of credit-bearing courses at A&M-Commerce or elsewhere.

Transfer students who no longer work with success coaches will be advised by the individual college's advising or mentor center.
